ABOUT PUBLIC AFFAIRS

With this Folio we introduce two new personalities to our OPINION series: R. H. Darden, former teacher of English, UCLA; now engaged in free lance publications consultation for market research firms. He is a graduate of Pomona College cum laude, received his M.A. at UCLA, and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He is the author of, among other publications, "Artists in Armbands: Studies in Totalitarian Esthetics"; and William F. Buckley, Jr. said of him, "A mad but amusing intellectual. . . . I forgive him everything except his sincerity." (Page Commentating from various countries throughout the world will be Dr. Stephen D. Slingsby. Dr. Slingsby is an Assistant Professor of Government and head of a scientific consulting firm. He is presently engaged in political and governmental research in a number of countries. He was a candidate for the State Assembly as a Republican last June and prior to that served as consultant to the California State Legislature. He was a Rhodes scholar nominee and a CORO Foundation Intern. (Page

And then there will be DEAR HARRY. Nothing is so frustrating as to hear a program featuring a speaker who is brilliant, incisive, logical, and as far as you're concerned, "wrong". His poisonous barbs have ricocheted off Mount Wilson to impale the sensitive souls of KPFK-ers throughout Southern California. . . . and you can do nothing. Ah, but now you can do something. Lay bare the inadequacies of the other fellow's ideas by scheduling your own subject on "Dear Harry". This new correspondence column of the air is edited and produced by Harry Pollard with an eye to controversy, interest and humor. He promises to be equally unfair to all with his blue pencil, so if you feel your side is unrepresented it is probably your own fault for not writing to . . . DEAR HARRY, c o KPFK. (Page

The duration of programs scheduled is approximate. Dates after listings indicate past or future duplicate broadcasts. Numbers in parentheses following concerts refer to playing time in minutes. An asterisk(*) before a music listing indicates a new release, or newly acquired selection.

12:45 BOOKS IN REVIEW: The Necessary Revolution in American Education, by Francis Keppel, published by Harper and Row. A short but critical evaluation of a first book by the former U.S. Commissioner of Education by Kenneth A. Martyn, Professor of Special Education at California State College at Los Angeles. We hope to offer book reviews on a more consistent basis from now on, thanks to the good offices of Prof. Arthur Benson who makes all the necessary arrangements with his colleagues for us.

1:00 SHELLEY BURTON ON FILM ON RADIO: Today, the first in Shelly Burton's regular programs on film. Mr. Burton having misspent most of his youth in darkened and desolate movie houses awaiting infrequent but valuable filmatic revelations has capitalized on and catapulted this experience into becoming the motion picture reviewer for the Los Angeles Free Press through his weekly column—Shelly Burton On Film, and Associate Editor of Movie International magazine. He remains your humble and grammatically grandiose commentator on visuals.

Letters from Listeners

Dear Paul and Peter:

Aug. 2.

It is with a heavy heart that I take pen in hand to tell you that, in my opinion, really was pretty regarding your Sunday night (Monday morning) show. I was very disappointed when you announced at the start that it had been cut to three hours. By the time the three hours were up, I was sorry that the particular show hadn't been cut to three minutes.

Adding acids, it was drab. I think it was a drag primarily because the calls which came in were, for the most part, pretty bland. Over that, you have little control. But you do have control over your responses. The chick who wanted to meet John Lennon (for example) should have been brushed off gently in about 40 seconds. Instead, Paul, who devoted several minutes to telling her she didn't have a chance.

Now look, you guys. I love you both. If I didn't, I sure as hell wouldn't waste time writing to you. But I live in dread that the show will fold, and this I would hate to see. I have caught it from the second night and I think that, for the most part, it is great; there is simply nothing else on the air during those hours that an intelligent human being can listen to without vomiting, and damned little else at any other hour, except KRRR. So, forgive me if I rap your head. You have a nice voice or humor (see Sunday broadcast) but don't overdo the dialect, or the odd sound effects, etc. And don't overdo the dialect, or the odd sound effects; to be honest, they're a little juvenile.

Constructively (for a change) I suggest you try to involve the show more deeply in important subjects. Don't be afraid of Mel, Sam, or civil rights. The last word has not been said on these subjects. For example, take Malcolm Lowrey's other than science fiction? And why not more talk of books other than the YALOWA? Several books have been written on this subject plus numerous little magazine pieces (like ILLNESS, etc.) and if you announce a few days in advance that it's discussed, I'm sure you could get a good half hour of discussion.

Again, to coin a cliché, this hurts. (Miles Davis.) Please forgive.

Radio

Dear Peter and Paul,

I'm starting this during your closing record. (Miles Davis.) (Sketches of Brains.) What a magical night this was.

Cuchulain and Lightning Hopkins, Three known from a woman with a motherly voice. Trains, the U.S.C. Unbearability...

I told you: "I enjoy your show." How inadequate an expression of my feelings. Actually, I'm totally absorbed in it--not to listen would be unthinkable.

Then I hurt up after talking to you. I felt rather stupid, and impatient with myself for not having (I thought) managed to make my point with clarity. Then, after someone later called you, wanting to express me and continue talking, I realized that in my inarticulate way, I had communicated in spite of myself. Maybe the most useful purpose of speech is just to establish a connection, a bridge, across which we intuit each other's feelings.

... couple of "truths" etc. someone said that we fear death (I call it, I believe). I think it's not our own death we fear, so much as the death of the one loved person without whom life would lose its joy. My advice (paraphrasing) with all the poetry you can, because someday it may be the only thing that keeps someone going. (Or have a child.) (Or avoid all the chaos.)

... much as I enjoy the phone conversations, I like the exchanges between you two ever more. I hope you will keep the program unstructured, and play a little progressive jazz from time to time. (Curtis Meiss, Grove School.)

Getting sleepy now...

Goodnight.

The "Unauthorized Lady"

Gentlemen:

The hospitality you accorded me on your radio show last Sunday made me glad I appeared.

Knowledgeable people who conduct shows interested firstly in truth and honesty always make me feel better. It also makes the interview and the appearance more pleasant.

The best of luck to the both of you on your show and to a quick replacement of Huntley and Brinkley.

Many thanks.

Most cordially,

YPFK
Dear Sirs,

I have tuned into you while searching for intelligent + the bands. Once I heard an offer to win a free program listing. I wrote your name along with the offer down on a piece of paper and put it in a drawer of my desk. There it sat for a few months.

The time is a little after 3:00 am. I am listening to the RADIO FREE OZ program. I want to keep on listening. I just tuned it in for the first time a few moments ago. More!

Please send me your program listing as soon as possible.

Yours evermore.

Dear YPFK:

25 AUG 56

OT:
 In my rush to send my renewal to the station yesterday, I included five extra dollars for a copy of the "Listening Ear" (!) -- well, I suppose some intelligent volunteer will realize the I meant "THE EXACTING EAR" and will so interpret my quick notation.

By the way: my vote for RADIO FREE OZ hours is for it to remain as it is: I believe less program destruction by paranoid listeners will take place at 11 day than an earlier hour.

Dear Sirs:

I just heard a talk on The Open Hour, by Stanley Green, if I recall his name right. I hope you tell me how I might obtain a transcript of his talk, which was on Viet Nam. It was a lecture about 45 minutes long.

Incidentally, I am enclosing $10 that I owe you on behalf of Radio Free Oz. It seems that I keep calling them up to talk on the air. I must have some kind of basic need to be heard by thousands of people. One of these days I'll have to record an hour-long tape of the meanderings of my mind and send it to you to play on the Open Hour.

Sincerely,

Peter Bergman

Paul Jay Robbins

7:00 HALLOWEEN . . . In the past, it has been KPFA's practice to fill Halloween night with programs of an exceptionally frivolous nature. This year, in keeping with the Ideals of our Organization, we will make no attempt to pander to the popular taste, but to present programming designed to uplift and exalt the listener. Halloween is a childish and uselessly Medieval holiday which has long outlived its usefulness and . . . uh . . . and has, certainly . . . No! that's impossible! Any way, uh, anyone who seriously believes that such things as ghosts and, uh, goblins could actually—actually—THERE'S SOMETHING CRAWLING UP MY LEG!! Could actually . . . OH NO!
